Louv2.01x International Human Rights

Dear participants,

We are thrilled to see the level of engagement with the course, although we realize the first week has been particularly demanding on your time and has tested your ability to find your way through new concepts and vocabulary!

We would like to inform you that Cambridge University Press is offering a 20% discount on the casebook

International Human Rights Law: Cases, Materials, Commentary, on which the MOOC is largely based. It is certainly not required to buy the casebook, but the book may constitute a useful companion in your study and it is probably the best way to return to some of the issues covered after the course ends, to explore these topics in greater depth or to use human rights in your personal practice. The discount from the publisher can be obtained by using the promotional code mentioned in this leaflet.

We anticipate that you will complete Section 1 of the course this Friday, February 28th. In comparison, the other sections of the course are relatively light and less technical.

We look forward to continuing to learn with you!

Best wishes,

Olivier De Schutter
