In various general comments, the UN Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights recommended that States adopt framework laws, either to define into law certain duties that are part of a national strategy for the fulfilment of certain rights, or to define the process by which such a strategy should be adopted.

Consider the excerpts of the International Human Rights Law casebook (/c4x/LouvainX/Louv2.01x/asset/_Materials__Casebook_466-472.pdf) (pages 466-472), and turn next to the two following debates.
